Spiritual Disciplines for Leaders

Pacific 8:30A – 11A
Mountain 9:30A – Noon
Central 10:30A – 1P
Eastern 11:30A – 2P

By the most basic of definitions, to be a spiritual leader, you need to be growing spiritually. To maintain integrity and perspective — and to avoid burnout, egotism, and pragmatism — leaders need to stay close to God and His Word. But while contending with busy schedules, competing agendas, wide-ranging expectations and demanding standards, how do you ensure that is happening in your life?

George Barna — The Leading Director of The Barna Group, Ltd. and author of A Fish Out of Water

John Ortberg — Senior Teaching Pastor, Menlo Park Presbyterian Church and author of The Life You've Always Wanted

Richard Foster — Founder, Renovaré and author of Celebration of Discipline
