

The "Ultimate Leadership" Series

2005 – 2007 Monthly Broadcast Schedule

2005

Tuesday, March 8, 2005: Character and Leadership

Learn why character development is at the core of great leadership. This broadcast presents the foundational principles of leadership and offers unique tools for diagnosing and developing your own character as a leader.

Tuesday, April 12, 2005: How to Know God's Will for You as a Leader

Understand God's will for you as a leader by learning to apply Biblical principles of transformation and character development.

Tuesday, May 17, 2005: How to Build Trust as a Leader

Building trust is imperative to being a good leader. Yet, skills, competency and strategies are not enough to build trust! Trust is won as leaders discover the impact of authenticity in leadership.

Tuesday, June 21, 2005: Defining Yourself as Leader

Leaders need to be comfortable in who they are and what they do well (and don't do well)! An honest self-evaluation will help you better utilize your strengths and manage your limitations.

Tuesday, July 19, 2005: Boundaries in Leadership

Leaders need to know how to set up healthy boundaries with the people they lead and within their organization. Discover how to resist outside forces and set limits.

Tuesday, August 9, 2005: Identifying Traveling Companions for the Leader

The right traveling companions are the keys to survival in leadership. Leaders need safe, sane people to keep them connected, focused and fresh. Learn how to identify these people in your life.

Tuesday, September 13, 2005: Enemies and Idiots: How to Deal with Toxic People

Some people just sap the life out of others. Understand the difference between "enemies" and "idiots" and how best to deal with these "poisonous characters" as a leader.

Tuesday, October 18, 2005: Leadership is for Grown-ups

To be an effective leader, you need to not only act like an adult, you need to be an adult. Learn how to deal with authority issues... as a grownup.

Tuesday, November 29, 2005: Becoming Your Own Growth CEO

Equip the leaders in your church and community to foster and manage their personal growth in a way that is good for the entire organization.

2006

Tuesday, January 17, 2006: Transcendent Character in Leadership

Leaders know that they are serving and building something bigger than themselves. Learn the freedom of developing transcendent character as a leader.

Tuesday, February 21, 2006: The Relationally-Based Leader

Learn how to move beyond a "task-result-performance" orientation to focus on relationship and connection.

Thursday, March 30, 2006: Taking Ownership of the Outcome

Explore how great leaders take personal responsibility for the results of their leadership.

Thursday, April 27, 2006: The Authentic Leader

Every leader struggles with the tension of cultivating an image of who they think they should be and who they really are. Discover the freedom of becoming an authentic leader.

Tuesday, May 23, 2006: How to Handle Conflict as a Leader

Conflict is inevitable, but broken relationships are optional. Learn the skills necessary to make conflict an opportunity for growth.

Tuesday, June 20, 2006: Work Does Not Equal Family

There is a common tendency for organization to describe itself as family. However, this often doesn't mesh well with the need for organization, structure and performance goals. Join us as we help you create a successful and effective means of helping people work well in the environment of work.

Tuesday, July 25, 2006: Truth-Telling in Leadership

Join us as we look at the issues surrounding truthfulness and the role it plays in the success or failure of a leader.

Tuesday, August 22, 2006: Becoming Fruitful in Leadership

Come find out why it is possible to work hard and not create results, and discover the ways our own character weaknesses can get in the way of achieving what is desired.

Tuesday, September 19, 2006: Becoming a Leadership Lifer

Most leaders want to be successful for the long haul. Learn how actions and attitudes help realize and sustain a lifetime of successful and productive leadership.

Tuesday, October 24, 2006: How Good Leaders Handle Negative Realities

While leadership is about dealing with problems, sometimes negative realities have the power to overcome a leaders' abilities, their leadership can become stalled or defeated. Join us to take an important look at what successful leaders do when things get bad.

November 21, 2006: Enemies and Idiots: How to Deal with Toxic People (Best of CCN)

Some people just sap the life out of others. Understand the difference between "enemies" and "idiots" and how best to deal with these "poisonous characters" as a leader.

December 12, 2006: Leadership is for Grown-ups (Best of CCN)

To be an effective leader, you need to not only act like an adult, you need to be an adult. Learn how to deal with authority issues... as a grownup.

2007

January 30, 2007: A Growth Plan for Leaders

Leaders want to grow, and they need to grow. But how? Is there a predictable path that works? What are the ingredients that a leader should have in that recipe? What is the direction it should take? What are the issues that he or she should be facing? Join us as we discuss a path that leaders can take to make sure the important issues of growth are being addressed.

February 27, 2007: A Leader Who Confronts Successfully

Effective leaders do not shy from confrontation, but those leaders also have the necessary skills to handle conflict successfully. Give the leaders on your team the skills and the vision they need to make confrontation work to everyone's advantage.

March 27, 2007: The Worst Sickness a Leader Can Have

There is one character trait that can get in the way of leadership, the one that ends in division, failure, defeat and broken relationships. Learn both its identity and the keys to overcoming this deadly trait in your leadership.

April 24, 2007: Good Outcomes Require the Right Kind of Time

Instant results are generally useless. Bearing fruit in leadership takes time. Learn to harness the passage of time wisely and productively in order to generate good outcomes.

May 22, 2007: Overcoming Obstacles and Winning

Join CCN this month and learn what good leaders do with the obstacles in their path.

June 26, 2007: Making Failure Your Friend

Dr. Townsend describes how successful leaders do not fear failure but learn from their mistakes.

July 24, 2007: A Leader's Accountability Needs

Discover why accountability is essential to your success and learn how you can make it a practical part of your life.

August 21, 2007: Leading from Your Values, Not Your Reactions

Learn how to avoid the continual 'crisis-mode' by becoming a leader who leads from your values rather than your reactions.

September 25, 2007: A Structured Plan for the Care and Development of a Senior Pastor or Leader

Dr. Cloud presents a model for leadership growth that is vital to the well-being and success of any leader in any organization.

October 23, 2007: Being a Leader Whom People Want to Follow

Learn specific skills for making a deeper connection with those you lead and become the leader that others gladly follow!

November 27, 2007: The Fear that Limits Leaders

Every leader has fear. The question is, are they the right fears. And, if they are handled in the right way. We will explore healthy and pathological fears and how to solve them.

December 18, 2007: Leaders Create Alliances that Work

Good Leaders don't lead in a vacuum. They have the ability to connect with, network with, and establish trust alliances that enhance the vision and goals of organization. Learn the keys of building alliances.

