

Mark Mittelberg, America's most contagious churchman, returns to CCN to help church leaders make their Christians contagious. Through video clips and Mark's infectious enthusiasm you'll learn how a church becomes an effective incubator of evangelists by embracing and instilling evangelistic values, empowering a "point person", liberating and equipping natural evangelists in a diversified team, and running high-visibility outreach events. Want your church to infect your community for God? Don't miss this seminar!
