There's a contagion going around, and Mark Mittelberg is spreading it.

Again.

Mark, author of the Becoming a Contagious Christian book and curriculum and perhaps America's most contagious churchman, returns to CCN to show church leaders how to help their people become contagious for Jesus Christ. This seminar is based on Mark's acclaimed book Building a Contagious Church (Zondervan, 2001).

Mark will explore and illuminate the six stages through which a church becomes an effective incubator of evangelists:

- Embracing evangelistic values
- Instilling those values in your people
- Empowering an evangelistic "point person" to lead the charge
- Liberating and equipping natural evangelists
- Developing a diversified team
- Running high-visibility outreach events in your community

Through video clips and Mark's infectious enthusiasm you'll learn how to make each stage happen in your church and how to build toward the next stage. And you'll learn how even small churches can become big spreaders of the Word.

Want your church to infect your community for God? Don't miss this seminar!

YOU SHOULD ATTEND THIS SEMINAR IF

- You are a senior pastor
- You are a coordinator or overseer of evangelism
- You have a heart for the Great Commission and how your church can carry it out

You can attend this live, interactive satellite seminar at
