Want a fresh approach to church growth and church life? Go back to the beginnings of the church in the Great Commandment and the Great Commission with Dann Spader. Dann will show you how disciple-making and multiplication are the mission and mandate of the church. He'll reveal how the principles of growing a healthy church are based firmly on the Great Commandment and the Great Commission.

You'll develop a blueprint for growth by exploring these key questions:

- What does it mean to make disciples in 2003?
- How do we accomplish the mandate of the Great Commission?
- Where are we failing?
- What principles of church health will aid us in making disciples?
- What does a fully-trained disciple look like?
- How in today's culture do we make disciples who can reproduce?
- Why was Jesus so passionate about multiplication?
- How did Jesus develop multiplying disciples?
